In this figure, the X-axis represents SCOAP hospitals indicated by a code number. The Y-axis is the percent of appendectomies with perforation. The number in parentheses indicates the total number of appendectomies performed in this time period.

In this figure, the X-axis represents SCOAP hospitals indicated by a code number. The Y-axis indicates the percent of appendectomies with perforation that had a prior urgent/ER visit. The number in parentheses indicates the total number of cases.